CONNECTICUT RIFLEMEN
WON ONE MATCH.

J. W. Hession Took the New York State Championship at Sea Girt.

Sea Girt, N. J., Aug. 26.—Of five matches shot on the Sea Girt rifle range today, one was won by the marine corps, one by Connecticut, one by New Jersey, one by the District of Columbia and one by Massachusetts.

The New York state championship, an individual event shot on the 800, 900 and 1,000 yard ranges, was won by J.
W. Hession of Connecticut, with a score of 145. S. W. Wise, from Massachusetts, was second with 143 to his credit, and Capt. K. C. W. Casey, Pennsylvania, was third with 140.

The Hayes match, shot at 600 yards, was won by Sergeant O. M. Schriver, Woodward, Massachusetts, 49; third, Sergeant J. H. Kneubel, New York, 49; fourth, Capt. W. H. Richard, Connecticut, 49; fifth, Lieut. W. E. Wewas, New Jersey, 49.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES.
Lassie McGregor Won King George V Stake—Other Interesting Races.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Only four horses started in the King George V stake, $5,000, for 2 1/4 miles, the feature of the second day's grand circuit races at the Fort Erie track, today.

Lassie McGregor won in first two heats rather easily and took the fifth heat from Margaret Drin with little to spare.

After Oakdale had won the first heat of the Queen City stake for 2,083 trotters in 2:13, the judges ordered all bets off on the heat. Omar won the next three heats and race. The judges' finding that no heavy bets had been made on the heat of the race, announced that no further ruling would be made.

R. H. Breat won the 2,071 pace in straight heats. E. L. White, an amateur driver from Syracuse, won the Buffalo road drivers' steeplechase for three year olds with Lyndon.

EXCITING TENNIS AT NEWPORT

Three Matches Each Three Hours Long in All-Comers Tournament Wednesday—Evers and Zimmerman Start a Fight at Chicago—Cubs Again Defeat Braves—Planters Have Easy Victory.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 26.—Three matches each three hours long, lent unusual interest to the fourth round of the all-comers tournament for the national singles lawn championship today. Thirteen of the contests in the round were settled in short order, twelve of them in straight sets. Three pairs, however, were too closely matched for early decisions. G. H. Trenchard and the West Side club, New York, fought E. H. Whitney of the Harvard team and Longwood, through five long sets before victory perched on his side of the net. Trenchard won thirty-three games and Whitney thirty. F. C.
Inman of the same club, West Side club, was compelled to play five sets comprising 62 games before he eliminated H. C. Johnson, also of Longwood Cricket club. The third extended match was between Charles A.
Major of Tampa, Fla., and Sidney Taylor Jr., of Philadelphia, the former winning after playing 55 games.

On the other hand the grand court match between the champion, M. E.
McLoughlin and Irving C. Wright of Boston, who holds the southern championship, was settled in 33 minutes.

The Californian contingent headed by McLoughlin came through the day's play without a defeat. E. P. Footrell put out C. L. Childs of Pittsburgh, R.
L. Murray defeated H. A. Mackinnon of Providence, and C. J. Griffin had little difficulty with A. D. Hammett of New Rochelle. All four are in different parts of the draw and while McLoughlin is looked upon as a sure winner of the tournament, the other westerners are regarded as possible semi-finalists.

New York lost seven of the twelve players who started the round today and four of the six Bostonians also dropped out. Three Philadelphia players are still in the running together with one each from Tampa and Newport.

Of the players defeated in the extra set matches, Whitney had the best chance of winning. Six times he was within a stroke of the match but lacked the necessary push to put it by a yard, but three times within a stroke of victory, while Johnson was twice in a position where a place, or an error by Inman would have brought about another result.

Play was begun today in the interscholastic championship with eight youngsters in the draw. They were selected at sectional school tournaments held under college auspices and represented Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Chicago,
Southern California and New York University.

The big match tomorrow will be the struggle in the fifth round between Karl Behr, a member of the recent Davis cup team, who failed to get into the play, and R. L. Murray, the young Californian who was favored by many close followers of the game as a selection for the team.

ond. Brown singled to left and Walker's fine throw had Mabel been by a yard, but Agnew dropped the ball, permitting the deciding run to score. Score by innings:

St. Louis 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-8 5
New York 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-2 7 Weilman and Agnew; Brown, and Sweeney.

CHENEY HELD THE
BRAVES TO ONE HIT
Evers and Zimmerman Caused a Free for All Fight—Score 1 to 0

Chicago, Aug. 26.—In a game in which Cheney allowed Boston only one hit and no runs, and gave relief Chicago's only run with a four base drive, the tension of the close league game today grew so great that the players of both clubs engaged in a fight. Several players were banished from the game.

In the seventh inning, after Seiler drove the ball over the right field screen for his home run, Zimmerman followed with a hit and left Seiler attempted to stretch it into a double.
Evers was waiting with the ball and tugged Zimmerman when he slid into second base. Something unseen happened, for Evers hit Zimmerman on the head with the ball as the player slid past the base. Zimmerman arose immediately and a free for all fight followed. Maranville came to Evers' assistance and a swarm of the home players rushed to the aid of Zimmerman. When order was restored Zimmerman, Evers, Maranville and Schmidt were sent to the club house.
Manager Stallings sent Pitcher Hess to first base for Boston.
